

Fun Things To Do In Cincinnati

Eat like a real Cincinnatian (or Northern Kentuckian) by ordering a 3-way and a cheese coney at Skyline Chili, a pizza at LaRosa's, and ice cream at Graeter's.

Check out Krohn Conservatory's nationally recognized showcase of more than 3,500 plant species from all over the world.

Shop at Findlay Market, Ohio's oldest continuously operated public market, on Saturday or Sunday morning.

Take a “ghost tour” or a “mafia tour” of Cincinnati or Northern Kentucky with American Legacy Tours.

Cross the Ohio River to take in the view of Cincinnati and do some shopping at Newport on the Levee.

Check out the inspiration for Julie's senior thesis—including a triceratops with a saddle on it—at the Answers in Genesis Creation Museum.

See the city from the Ohio River on a Riverboat Tour.

Stop by the Newport Aquarium and pet a shark at Shark Central.

Stop by the Cincinnati Art Museum to see Renoir's "Fog on Guernsey" and van Gogh's "Undergrowth with Two Figures," and then take a stroll through beautiful Eden Park.

Check out the second oldest zoo in America, the Cincinnati Zoo.

Walk in the footsteps of Ralph Waldo Emerson, Herman Melville, and Harriet Beecher Stowe at the Mercantile Library.

Learn about Cincinnati's significant role in the history of the Underground Railroad at the National Underground Railroad Museum Freedom Center.

Explore the “The Birthplace of American Astronomy” and the first public observatory in the western hemisphere, the Cincinnati Observatory.

